

Wisconsin Ridge Campground

Facilities—There are two family campgrounds with 109 individual campsites as well as a modern indoor group camp and a group tent campground.

Reservations—Reservations are accepted for 87 of the family campsites and all of the outdoor group sites. To make a reservation, campers may call the toll-free reservation line. That number is 1-888-WI-PARKS (1-888-947-2757). The call center is open 9:00 A.M. until 9:00 P.M. on weekdays and 9:00 A.M. until 6:00 P.M. on weekends and holidays. Reservations may also be made on the Internet at www.wiparks.net. Reservations are accepted up to 11 months in advance of the start date.

Group Camping—There are two group camps. The outdoor group camp has five tent sites with a capacity of 130 persons. The Hugh Harper Indoor Group Camp has a capacity of 108 persons and consists of four dormitory buildings that house 27 persons in each, and a main lodge with fully equipped kitchen and dining facilities. Groups must furnish their own food and bedding. Reservations for the camp may be made one year in advance.

Electricity—Electrical outlets for campers are provided at 9 campsites in the Homestead campground and 25 sites in the Wisconsin Ridge campground.

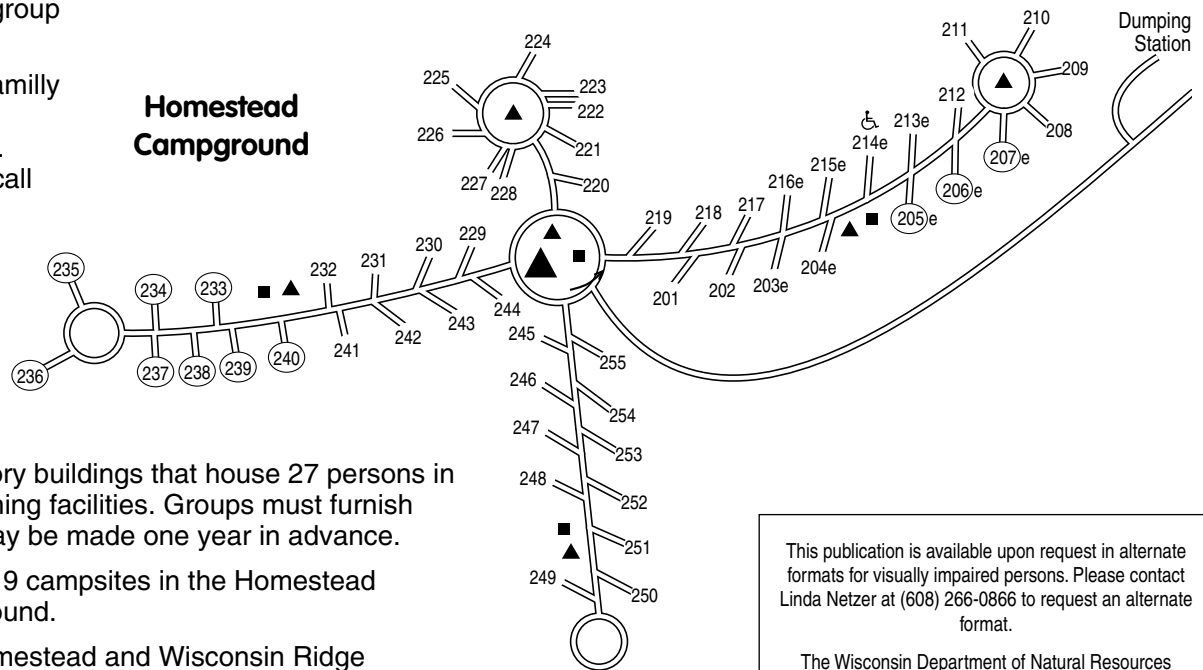

Showers—Showers for all campers are located in the Homestead and Wisconsin Ridge campgrounds.

Dumping Station—A dumping station for camper holding tanks is located along the entrance to the Homestead campground.

Firewood—Firewood can be purchased at the park concession stand. Downed wood may be collected.

Fees—Fees are required for admission, camping, electricity, and advance registrations. To obtain a listing of current fees, request a copy of the Visitor Guide brochure at the park office.

Laundry—Laundromats are located in nearby Prairie du Chien and are open 24 hours a day.
